Dakota Tedder on Alisports

Published on Sep 12, 2012

20-year-old Dakota Tedder is attempting to race professionally as a privateer under the Team Tedder rig. Hear from Dakota on what he's up against in the factory riders, his overall goals, and the support he's picked up along the way.

Dakota Tedder - Walking Towards a Dream

Published on Sep 20, 2012

I got to spend a few days with pro motocross rider Dakota Tedder, mechanic Damon Conkright, and 2 time national motocross champion Steve Lampson. With their strict riding and training schedule this Monster Energy Kawasaki backed privateer team is one to watch out for in 2013. Day in and day out Dakota and the team puts in the time and work with the hopes of one day accomplishing his dream of being at the top of his game. Take this little journey into their daily lives and keep an eye out for this team in the near future.

Team Tedder Crew Chief – Damon Conkright
Team Manager & Trainer – Steve "Lammy" Lamson
Crew – Daniel Kline
